

My Kind Of Scene

Powderfinger

Tell me where I'm supposed to begin an unhappy life working some kind of dead end job for everything you thought you had has gone from worse to bad

Lean to the side whisper it quiet the end is in sight to working all night around the clock for everything you thought you had

But it's not my kind of scene oh yeah footprints on the other side remind me where I've been oh yeah I'll watch from the other side

move out of sight and onto some life I'm dreaming of
for everything you thought you had
so I'll just wait and watch the wheels while you're turning back

remind me where I've been oh yeah

Pulls me over and it drags me under
Alright now alright now
