

Well of Souls

Power Quest

Million voices call to me, there's nowhere left to run Souls cry out in torment, pain and anguish has begun Trapped for all eternity no hope of breaking free Calling out for vengeance, now they're calling out to me

Will this be our true salvation ?
Can there be a brighter day ?
Will there be a new horizon ?
Will this be the price we pay ?

Chaos and damnation
For the victims of the well Mortal life of agony, immortal life of hell
A spell that can't be broken, see the writing on the wall Souls in black are silent; wait to hear the judgement call

Deep inside the well of souls where time is lost forever Can you hear me call your name ?
Deep inside the well of souls a thousand hearts are gathered There must be someone to blame
