

Nighttime Rebel

Powerwolf

In the night of surrender
In the full moonlight and the midnight game
Be the ghost and defender
And of glory be thy name
In the curse of a nightmare
In the end of time, fight a hurricane
Be the lightning, a thunder
And ignite the final flame

Seven hells, seven demons, seven murders in the sky
Take your fate in your hands, and so we rise up high

Nighttime rebel, stand alone against the wind
Nighttime rebel, break the holy sin
Nighttime rebel, wake up in the night and let begin
Nighttime rebel, holy light against the dark
Nighttime rebel, bear a holy heart
Nighttime rebel, summon in the dawn and let begin

In the ongoing darkness
Where the sky in torn and belief has failed
Be the guide, the pretender
And invoke the drowning rain
By the hand of an outlaw
By the flaming sword and a headless fail
Like a wolf, like a phantom
To the cross bound nail by nail

Seven hordes, seven daggers, in apocalyptic rain
By the dawn we are fading, still denied, it's not too late

Nighttime rebel, stand alone against the wind
Nighttime rebel, break the holy sin
Nighttime rebel, wake up in the night and let begin
Nighttime rebel, before the sin

In the curse after midnight
When inferno born and the mask unveil
Be the last, bent and broken, and denied the one to fail

Nighttime rebel, holy light against the dark
Nighttime rebel, bear a holy heart
Nighttime rebel, summon in the dawn and let begin
Nighttime rebel, pray and fight against the world
Nighttime rebel, make the call be heard
Nighttime rebel, wake up in the night and bring the sin
Nighttime rebel
