

Where the Wild Wolves Have Gone

Powerwolf

We fought the daylight
Any battle, any war
The call for blood worth dying for

We prayed for twilight
Side by side we stood as pack
But still tonight you won't come back

The night is over
But in the morning don't lie dead
Remember all the blood we had

And we'll meet where the wild wolves have gone
All we bleed in the armageddon storm
And we'll meet where the wild wolves have gone
All we need is the sacrament

We begged for mercy
Any hour, any day
To bring the nightfall we would pray

You left us bleeding
In a silver bullet rain
Still in this world you can't remain

The day is dawning
When dusk is calling out for blame
And on this empty grave your name

And we'll meet where the wild wolves have gone
All we bleed in the armageddon storm
And we'll meet where the wild wolves have gone
All we need is the sacrament
