

One Of The Broken

Prefab Sprout

Hi, this is God here
Talking to me used to be a simple affair
Moses only had to see a burning bush
And he'd pull up a chair

Well, it's been a long time since we talked in that way
If you're wondering what to say

Sing me no deep hymn of devotion
Sing me no slow sweet melody
Sing it to one, one of the broken
And brother, you're singing, singing to me

I remember King David
With his harp and his beautiful, beautiful songs
I answered his prayers
And showed him a place where his music belongs

It's not too far from here, come get up off your knees
If you're looking for ways to please

Sing me no psalm, you're not King David
Sing me no high, hushed glory be
Sing it to one, one of the broken
And brother, you're singing, singing to me

Sing me no deep hymn of devotion
Sing me no slow sweet melody
Sing it to one, one of the broken
And brother, you're singing, singing to me
