

Left-handed Theory

Premiata Forneria Marconi

You left-handed people
You have your own special flair
Fast left-handed players
Slow men had better beware
Tough baseball southpaw
Left tennis smash
Left-handed person
Once was a sign of a witch
Now the world needs them
To teach us a different stitch
What do they mirror
A contrast in view
Think of Da Vinci
His ambidextrous arts
Hendrix's guitar sang
Sweet feedback lightnin' from Mars
And in reflection
We see the stars
