

I Love Who You Are

Press Play

Like a summer breeze
You're moving in so mysteriously
Like a glimmer of sunshine
I melt when I look into your eyes
Whoa there you go again
Touching my heart and making me smile
Whoa there you go again
Being yourself with the little reasons why
Your love is like a book of fairy tales come true
Your love living happily ever after with you

I love who you are you are
You got yourself wrapped around my heart
I love who you are you are
You light me up like the moon and stars
I love who you are you're never too far
You put me right in the center of your world
I love you you love me, you're mine oh mine oh mine
I love who you are

Spring summer winter fall
Doesn't really matter to me at all
Whether showers or may flowers
Every day will be just ours
Whoa there you go again
Touching my heart and making me smile
Whoa there you go again
Being yourself with the little reasons why
Your love is like a book of fairy tales come true
Your love living happily ever after with you

Your love is like a book of fairy tales come true
