

Wild Angels

Pretty Boy Floyd

Hey girl. Let's run away. We'll set the skies on fire tonight.
It's you and me. We'll run away to Hollywood.
We'll Rock n' Roll all night long like we never could.
'Cause now we're free.
We're gonna come out screaming like a siren in the starlit night.
We'll dance on the razors edge. And we'll be there, be there under the spotlight.

You and me. We're wild angels.
We'll set the skies on fire.
You and me. We're wild angels.
We're gonna set the skies on fire tonight.

Well, hey girl. We can run. Far away. Where the night's so young.
The city lights is where we'll be.
We'll hit the streets and we'll take the town.
Rocking down to the solid sounds. It's you and me.
You know we're wild and we're free. Oh.
Together were a thunderstorm.
Were raining everywhere we go. Oh.
We won't stop until we see the top of the rainbow. Rainbow. You know. Oh.

You and me. We're wild angels. We'll set the skies on fire. You and me.
We're wild angels and we're gonna set the skies on fire tonight.

Oh yeah.
Well, don't ya know that we're wild? Yeah, we're wild angels.

Ah yeah, wild. Yeah, we're wild angels. Well, we're wild. Yeah.

We're wild angels and we're gonna set the skies on fire tonight.

Wild angels. The sky's on fire tonight. Wild angels.
The skies are on fire tonight. Wild angels. The skies are on fire.

You and me will set this night on fire tonight. Wild angels.

The skies are on fire tonight. Wild angels. The skies are on fire tonight.

Wild angels. The skies are on fire. You and me will set this night on fire tonight.
