

Little Drops Of Heaven

Pretty Maids

I was blinded by the darkness
Wishing for a ray of light
Everyday I felt so heartless
With a future not in sight
You crossed my path
When I was down
You brought me back on solid ground
You gave me strength, you changed my luck
My only friend, when times were tough

Little drops of heaven
My saving grace, sweet embrace
Twenty four seven
Let your love rain, you ease the pain
Drops of heaven

I was in my darkest hour
When I felt an angels kiss
And all the heartache were devoured
In a thunderstorm of bliss
You picked me up you broke the ice
Gave me a touch of paradise
I'm standing tall I'm shining through
And girl it's all because of you

Little drops of heaven
My saving grace, sweet embrace
Twenty four seven
Let your love rain, you ease the pain
Drops of heaven
My inspiration, love creation
Twenty four seven
