

Sad To See You Suffer

Pretty Maids

My dying angel
Where's the smile I used to see
You seem so strange cant Feel that Spark that used to be
An uphill climbing
Like, a never ending stairway
The sun don't shine for you anymore

Makes me sad to see you suffer
I really hate to see those tears
If I could I'd be your cover
From the world you seem to fear
Sad to see you suffer
Wish I could heal the pain away
Sad to see you suffer
Another day

How can I touch the world
That lies behind your eyes
I cannot comprehend how deep the bullet lies
Wish I could break the chain of pain that seems to bind you
And make you feel whole again

Makes me sad to see you suffer
I really hate to see those tears
If I could I'd be your cover
From the world you seem to fear
Sad to see you suffer
Wish I could heal the pain away
Sad to see you suffer
Another day

If I could chase away the demons
In your everyday hell
Give you some belief
If I could break the spell
I would stay strong
When your mind is weak
Be there all along
When you're in to deep

Makes me sad to see you suffer
I really hate to see those tears
If I could I'd be your cover
From the world you seem to fear
Sad to see you suffer
Wish I could heal the pain away
Sad to see you suffer
Another day
