

Wake Up to the Real World

Pretty Maids

You take a trip down memory lane
Back in the childhood days
When everyday was an innocent game
And life a fairy tale

You're a 21 century girl

Place your bets on happy endings
You know you're dreaming just Pretending you're not

You hideaway in colour full dreams
From the dark of night
Sick of man of extremes
And the world outside

You face the day with false illusion
Made up dreams and blind confusion

Step into it
Open up your eyes
Wake up to the real world
Sleeping beauty
You still fantasize
Wake up to the real world
What's it like in in the world where you are
In your secret place
Do you feel love healing your scars
Do you feel embraced

There your mind is free to wander
Where no one's gonna steal your thunder

Step into it
Open up your eyes
Sleeping beauty
You still fantasize
