

My Good Thang

Pretty Willie

She got the best conversation she look good from head to toe
I think one day she just might become the future willie moe
She shop at bebe bcbg and she floss her gucci frames
She got her own car and house she ain't suffering for a thang
Plus she go to church on sunday and she finally getting saved
(Hallelujah)
Even though she was promiscious back in her younger days
But I used to be the same way I can't even fuss or fight
I just figure she'll stay with me if I keep the loving tight
[Oooh]

I let you know that your my good thang
Even if you, make a mistake and do the wrong thang
I'll forgive you, I just believe that you and I are suppose to be together
Hold on and don't let go
Through everything that we done been through we still stay together (uh huh)
I just pray that we can make this thing last forever
I do adore you so you know you can ask for whatever
Hold on and don't let go

Now when she say she really loves me make me wanna love her more
You can catch us at your local shopping centers at the store
Buying gucci, coach, and louie she enjoys the finer things
Plus we working with two incomes so the money ain't a thang
See we've been thinkin bout vacation, hawaii maybe jamiaca
I would rather do tahiti or the coast of costa rica
It don't matter we together, we enjoy doing our thang
Two hearts finally came together and I sealed it with a ring

I let you know that your my good thang
Even if you, make a mistake and do the wrong thang
I'll forgive you, I just believe that you and I are suppose to be together
Hold on and don't let go
Through everything that we done been through we still stay together (uh huh)
I just pray that we can make this thing last forever
I do adore you so you know you can ask for whatever
Hold on and don't let go

You're the one who held me down through the hard times
Physically, mentally, body and soul you are mine
The only light that I wanna see so you gotta shine
(Hold on and don't let go)
I'll be here hands opened wide, just ask and I will provide
For the rest of my life, we shall never divide
And all the nights that you cried, just do this for me baby
(Hold on and don't let go)

I let you know that your my good thang
Even if you, make a mistake and do the wrong thang
I'll forgive you, I just believe that you and I are suppose to be together
Hold on and don't let go
Through everything that we done been through we still stay together (uh huh)
I just pray that we can make this thing last forever
I do adore you so you know you can ask for whatever
Hold on and don't let go

You're my good thang

My good thang
You're my good thang
Hold on and don't let go
