

Under Your Spell

Primal Fear

I'm twisted in dreams I won't forgive
Your secrets were safe so far as i discovered lies
First it hurts, I'm going insane
I'm slamming against the grain

Where is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me I still believe
I'm under your spell

I damn you for taking bad advice
I guess your time was gone as you want to burst my pride
Deep inside me I feel save
I'm slamming against the grain

Where is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me I still believe
I'm under your spell

Don't you think I'm staying any longer?
The price I payed is much too high
Your great deal of mortality is over

First it hurts, I'm going insane
I'm slamming against the grain

Where is the faith, where is the trust?

Where is the faith, where is the trust?
I'm under your spell
Forgive me I still believe
I'm under your spell
