

I'm Comin' Down

Primal Scream

Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting

I've been so high, I never wanted to come down
(Drifting, drifting)

I've been so lost, I never wanted to be found
I'm all hung over with bad dreams
I stumble in to messy scenes

I'm coming down, I can't face the dawn
I'm coming down, I feel too far gone

I've been drifting, I've been strung-out, I've been burned
(Drifting, drifting)

I've been lonely, to the point of no return
I drank myself to sleep last night
I see the the world through bloodshot eyes

I'm coming down, I can't face the dawn
I'm coming down, I feel too far gone

Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting

Highs and pills won't heal my ills
But they make me feel better for a little while

I'm coming down, I can't face the dawn
I'm coming down, I feel too far gone

I'm coming down, I'm coming down, I'm coming down, I'm coming d own

Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
Drifting, drifting, drifting, drifting
