

Sideman

Primal Scream

He won't but then again he might
Changes colour overnight
Agrees with everything you say
Just as looking as he gets paid

He's The Sideman
Sideman
Watch you back man
He's at your side man

A smiling face for every place
Politesse and mannered grace
Acting out his chosen role
Never let him get too close

He's The Sideman
Sideman
Watch you back man
He's at your side man

Nothingness behind his eyes
Always centered on the prize
Snide behind the winning smile
Always goes to extra mile

He's The Sideman
Sideman
Watch you back man
He's at your side man

Blind ambition, empty words
Platitudes so well rehearsed
A perfect dinner guest I'm told
A liar with a plastic soul

He's The Sideman
Sideman
Watch you back man
He's at your side man
