

Skull X

Primal Scream

The sky's black with locusts, my eyes are burning stars
There's a mountain of gold teeth in every bank vault in this world

Wanna try and steal my face, my body and my soul?
Ridden on a bed of nails walking into walls

Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again

Do I drown in my streams, do I kill you in my dreams
Do I draw a knife across your throat?
Is your mouth an open grave, will I fall upon your blade
Are those needles in your eyes the blood of Jesus?

Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again

Another teenage suicide, slit your wrists and laugh
When boredom kills, shot morphine pills be faithful unto death
In every home a rapist are killers family men
Why do children hate their parents, keep a shotgun underneath your bed

Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again

So fly the skull and crossbones burns the union jack
Hang on to your eyeballs, paint the daytime black
Choose your best friends carefully, don't betray your code
Live outside society, stay inside your soul

Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Don't you find hard to laugh when your mouth is full of broken glass?

Thoughts mutate to locusts skull exploding
Don't you find hard to laugh when your mouth is full of broken glass?

Thoughts mutate to locusts skull exploding
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again
Ooo baby, do it again, ooo baby, c'mon baby, do it again

Do it again, c'mon baby, do it again
Do it again, c'mon baby, do it again
Do it again, c'mon baby, do it again
Do it again, c'mon baby, do it again
