

Run Away

Prime Circle

Now in the future I don't know
What is coming where we'll go
But in the distance, persistence
Will keep me going strong

And in the past we moved so slow
And there's a world out there I know
Just waiting anticipating
To get upon that road

Runaway now

Now this space is small for me
I can't move and I can't breath
I'm scared I end up here, forever
Disappear
Packing my bags I'm breaking out
Searching for new horizons now
In the distance persistence
Will keep me going strong

Run, run don't be a victim
Make sure everything's gonna be ok
Blasting down this pass
Top down going so fast
And I've had enough I'm gonna
Get the hell outta here

Runaway now

It's the only thing that I need
Only thing that I dream of Keeps me going on and on
Just to see what I am made of
Gonna do it now
Gonna face my fear
Gonna do it now
Get the hell outta here

Run, run don't be a victim
Make sure everything's gonna be ok
Blasting down this pass
Top down going so fast
And I've had enough I'm gonna
Get the hell outta here
