

This Life

Primer 55

You've got no self esteem
You think you're so mistreated
You can't stand your face, you cannot

Cannot believe that you cannot control your fate

This isn't what you wanted?
Someone to break you down in way
It's not the life you wanted
Someone to break you, someone to make you

It's bruises on your face
I guess you fell down the steps again
That's such a shame, 'cause you let it

You let it happen over and over again

This isn't what you wanted?
Someone to break you down in way
It's not the life you wanted
Someone to break you, someone to make you

It's just another day
The last day he touches you again
But that's the price he'll pay

You pull the trigger, it all goes away in one determined flash

This isn't what you wanted?
Someone to break you down in way
It's not the life you wanted
Someone to break you, someone to make you

Pay! Pay! Close you eyes
You better, hold em' tight, you'll never
Don't keep telling yourself it'll be alright
Don't keep telling yourself it'll be alright

This isn't what you wanted?
Someone to break you down in way
It's not the life you wanted
Someone to break you, someone to make you

Pay! Pay! Close you eyes
You better, hold em' tight, you'll never
Don't keep telling yourself it'll be alright
Don't keep telling yourself it'll be alright
