Dangerous

I should've known I would pay for this
You look to good with your makeup off
And your favorite song
They get scared to lust
Girl, you're dangerous

The checking, the fucking, the lying
The options, there's so many options
The ladder you gotta be climbing
You always just check on your status

Girl, what's been happening lately?
We don't even talk no more
I be getting high on the low
All the guys on your phone
Lately [?] gone cold
I see it in your eyes
In your tone, I can hear it
Sky was the limit
Spoke about the future, I wasn't in it
Said you had plans for a man and a Bentley
But you should've been here when your boy was in the Civic
