

Lie to Me

Prince Royce

Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine

I'm kissing on this girl with a million-dollar mouthpiece
It's funny how she caught me
Usually I'm the one doing the talking
But she had so much to say
Started off nice and innocent
But even a fool could tell the difference
Between sweet girl and sweet nothings
I know better, I know better

Liar, liar, set my heart on fire
I got skeletons in my closet, too
So go ahead, I won't judge it, girl

Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine

As you went out, you say you was with your girlfriends
Mmm-hmm, "girlfriends"
I was out, too, looking for some revenge
Guess we even

Liar, liar, set my heart on fire
I got skeletons in my closet, too
So go ahead, I won't judge it, girl

Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine

Dime, mami chula
Show me what you tryna do
You ain't gotta talk
Just let your body tell on you
Dime, mami chula
Show me what you tryna do
Yo no quiero hablar
Let your body tell on you
So go ahead, so go ahead
Go ahead, I won't judge it, baby

Lie to me
Tell me anything you want me to believe
And I'll be anyone that you want me to be
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
Show me yours, I'll show you mine
