

Deep Inside My Heart

Priscilla Ahn

Deep inside my heart
I can feel it try to start
Something small but big
But I don't know what it is

Feels just like a thorn
Was it here since I was born?
How do I face it all alone?
Can I heal it on my own?

So I try to remember
Your face uh
It's hard I know
But the lightness grows

Everywhere I go
There are people I don't know
If I stay ordinary
Maybe they won't notice me

But I know that deep inside
No matter how hard I hide
You will find me on my own
When I'm with you I am home

So I try to remember your face uh
This place uh
It's hard I know
But the lightness grows
I remember
