

Lullaby

Priscilla Ahn

Here's a Lullaby
For anyone who wants to fly
From there home town
Where people drown and where the town leaves die

This old library
Has thrity books and one dictionary
But thats okay no one reads anyway we all watch tv

So heres your lullaby
No girl dont cry just rest your head and go to bed your time wi ll come to fly
Away
Never a day just dream your life away
Sleep...

All the dogs will die
They just cant seem to stay alive
Cause in this town our cop shoots him down and we just let him go inside

Please God please what happened to our dreams
Were loseing hope so we invest in dope to feel our vacant feeli ngs

So heres your lullaby
No girl dont cry just rest your head and go to bed your time wi ll come to fly
Away

Sleep...
