

One Day I Will Do

Priscilla Ahn

I'm so confused
'Bout what I'm supposed to do
Life can throw many options to choose from Should I go left
Or should I go down?
Will I find what I'm looking for Right here?

I know I can do all that my heart wants to
Like running away
But I just can't seem to

Time seems to go
So fast that I don't know
What I've done with myself in a day like today
So many plans to make
Too many I will break
It's easy to get down on myself
This way

I know I can do all that my heart wants to
Like ending this race
But I just can't seem to

One day I know
One day I'll be
Looking back on me
Looking back on me
Looking back on me

This I promise you
One day I will do
Everything so perfect and good
I swear, I swear
