

Waltzing Memories

Priscilla Ahn

Silent in the night magic in the light
Haunting like a dream peaceful and serene
Floating on the water

Eyes of ocean blue hiding in the dunes
Smiling in the sunshine crying in the dark night
Whispers on the water

Dancing with the moon stars fall til morning
Softly a voice sings
Gently, sweet, reminding

Waves of golden hue fly far above me
Was it truly you? or was I only dreaming?
Gently and sweet, softly reminding
Gently the sea will always remind me
