

Arizona

Priscilla Renea

I left Arizona with my tear stained cheeks
Your skin on my fingertips
And dust at my feet
Wanting to get away from whatever hurt so much.
Your love

So why don't I love you anymore
Don't I miss you any longer
Don't I need you anymore
Ohhh
Why is it that you don't cross my mind
Is it simply I don't love you
Is it that we've run out of time

What happened b/w the seconds the minutes the ticking hours on the hands
Of the clocks that used to count down time till I saw you again
Those seconds the minutes the ticking hours that flew by
I want it all back
Even if I have to go back
I'll take it all back
Even if I have to go back

I still loved you in alabama
I still missed you in tennessee
Still dreamt of you in carolina
Tell me did you think of me?
I was thinking of you in georgia
From the bottom to the top
But idk what happened
Somehow I forgot
I crossed that state line
And you werent on my mind

So why don't I love you anymore
Don't I miss you any longer
Don't I need you anymore
Ohhh
Why is it that you don't cross my mind
Is it simply I don't love you
Is it that we've run out of time

What happened b/w the seconds the minutes the ticking hours on the hands
Of the clocks that used to count down time till I saw you again
Those seconds the minutes the ticking hours that flew by
I want it all back, even if I have to go back, I'll take it all back, even if I have to go back

To Arizona.
