I was a sucker for the hard stuff
Bashed my head against the wall
Now I'm a junkie for your good love
Feel like the King of Rock n' Roll
I ain't looking anymore
Baby, I ain't looking anymore
I ain't looking anymore
'Cause I found what I've been looking for...
Maybe we should live together
A story written in the stars
I hope you believe me when I tell you (baby)
I love you more than my guitar
(Chorus)
I ain't looking anymore
I ain't looking anymore
I ain't looking anymore
Since I found what I've been looking for...
