Godsize

Pro-Pain

Life's a game the way you play me like I'm some kinda jerk You'll writhe in pain when I rock your mind till it hurts Approach with caution best beware Don't believe me, cause I don't care I'm the greatest deceiver and you will see that I'm godsize and I'll always be Feel the blow when I pummet your head like a freak Now you know its gonna take a toll on the weak So tell me something I don't know but you better think quick cause I ain't slow Better bet your lifetime guarantee that I'm godsize and I'll always be Thoughts of warfare cross the mind choose your weapon, run Hear the junter at your back fall to pieces, done Death defying, hard to kill Hence the "demon seed" Take you down, snaps your neck, satisfies thy need
