

Let The Blood Run Through The Streets

Pro-Pain

You say you want a new bloody revolution
And you want to save the world
What is your solution
It's time to protest
It's within our rights.
Well, we ain't going down without a motherfucking fight.

Cause that's how we roll.
And it's all we know

To reach inside ourselves
To purge us of this private fucking hell.
It's time for us to step up, and stand tall.

So let the blood
Let the blood run through the streets.
(2x)

We're all one voice and our voice is strong
There's so many of us that we can't be wrong
We're gonna give it all
Try to hold on tight.
They've got to give it up cause they know we're all too
fucking right

Cause that's how we roll.
And it's all we know

To look out for each other just like our sisters and brothers.
Stand all, stick together, be strong,
And let the blood
Let the blood run through the streets.
