

No Love Lost

Pro-Pain

I've payed the fool before it burned me to the core I put my pride on the shelf
Lots of broken hearts to repair
So I learned to confide in myself No rhyme, no reason, no place to hide to try and escape the pain inside

NO LOVE LOST.

Back in the day when we were so persistent we would do anything for a shot Pride ourselves alone on being different we'd give everything that we got

Its been so long my so called friend
In fair weather we will meet again

NO LOVE LOST.
