

Are You Getting Enough?

Professor Green

Are you getting enough?
Are you getting enough?
Are you getting enough?
Ahh yeah
Are you getting enough?
Are you getting enough?
Are you getting enough?
Ahh yeah

You want for it, feel for it
Rob for it, steal for it
Shot for it, deal for it
Pop for it, kill for it
Some are born with it, some are born without
Can hardly afford what they're forking out
Time is money, talk is cheap
Money talks, what we talking about?
Piggishness edacity poverty born depravity
Gluttony over luxuries all ravenous voracity
Insanity avidity salacity lust
Anything I want I need for me to have it's a must

You're draining my blood

I shop therefore I am, I am therefore I shop
Until I drop, I will not stop
'Til I cop everything I want
I spend money I ain't got Anything I want I get
I buy what I want, period
I don't really mind if I'm in the red
Credit cards, debit cards, store cards, more cards
The poor pay while the rich are spending
It's all as is intended
Can you feel it heating up?
Can you feel the climate change?
In our eyes you see the hunger
All you feed's a primal rage

Keep on, keep on
Keep on chasing money
Keep on, keep on
Keep on chasing money
Keep on, keep on
Keep on chasing money
Keep on, keep on
Keep on chasing money

The mad man with his megaphone said we can only serve one master
We're consumed by social evils and all what we lust after Satisfaction ain't for sale, and we're all going to Hell
But who were we supposed to hail to, when we don't know our father?
