

Do For You

Professor Green

There aint much that I aint been through, I used to sell drugs for a living, an' even though I changed my career up I'm still stuck where I'm living.

An' certain man are livid, don't wanna see the progression, see the professor an' wanna teach him a lesson.

They wanna strip me, their girls wanna see me naked, I flow hot but they don't wanna see me make it.

It gets deep on these cold streets, I always gotta worry 'bout my old beefs.

Same way I still dance through the bits, jeans still sagging with half a the piff.

You wanna see me down, if only you could see me now, toe to toe, lets go I got no fears Just know that I'll be here when the smoke clears.

What can you do to me, that I cant do to you? What do you want me to, do for you? What can you do to me that I cant do to you? What do you want me to, do for you?

I am completely confused and somewhat amused by the fact that you think anything you could do, or have done to me, I couldn't do back.

Eye for and eye, shot for shot, you might have, but I have not forgotten where I am from fam'.

So don't bred it if your not fam', should probably call you woman cause your not man.

Certain man are telling to much lies, took a shank 'cause I got too much pride, rather than kick though, it was a bit close, Lucky me I'm still alive to get dough.

Though you wanna see me down, if only you could see me now, toe to toe, lets go I got no fears, just know that I'll be here when the smoke clears.

What can you do to me, that I cant do to you? What do you want me to, do for you? What can you do to me that I cant do to you? What do you want me to, do for you?

I, I see a look in your eyes, I've seen before, telling me love don't live no more.

I, I see there's a thin line between love and hate and once you've crossed it it's too late to come back.

A few people'd tell you that I aint shit, still mistaking their jealousy for hatred. I wonder if it would of changed if it was n't for the game, either way I wouldn't change shit.

Might give a little, but I take none, I am the difference, I ain't trying to make one.

Suck out, you think I give a fuck 'bout when any a these pricks run their mouth?

Your speech long, say what you like but take it as a fuck you when I don't respond.

So passed, I'm beyond, so little man be gone. For your playing havoc with my ambience.

You wanna see me down, if only you could see me now, toe to toe, let's go I got no fears Just know that I'll be here when the smoke clears.

What can you do to me, that I can't do to you? What do you want me to, do for you? What can you do to me that I can't do to you?

What do you want me to, do for you?
