

Trouble

Professor Green

They told me you were trouble,
But I never knew I'd feel like this,
We're caught up in a struggle,
Can't let you go,
I can't let go of trouble,
No, I never thought I'd feel like this,
Isn't it ironic, you got me in your pocket,
We down with a little kiss,

Highly reputable,
Therefore I got a reputation,
I can see them in your ear,
I know what your friend's are saying,
You're just a night to him,
He live's his life on the road,
It's difficult now I am known,
Why can't we get some time alone?
I ain't trying to sell you dream's,
I just wanna sit and vibe,
There's a lot of fellas hollering,
I know you're sick of lie's,
I could say I ain't the same,
And I ain't into lie's,
But I know you'll figure that,
I'm different if you give it time,

Friends told you that I'm trouble
Yeah I bet you've heard a lot about me
There's a lot about me that you might've heard,
So are you gonna listen or just take me as you find me
Am I gonna get the chance that I deserve
'Cos I deserve it,
And I promise it's worth it,
I'll work you out,
(Yeah, yeah) yeah, I'll work you out

They told me you were trouble
But I never knew I'd feel like this
We're caught up in a struggle
Can't let you go
I can't let go of trouble
No, I never thought I'd feel like this
Isn't it ironic, you got me in your pocket
We down with a little kiss

Look, we could sit and talk about
The way you heard I used to be
But I find it hard to see
How that relates to you and me
See it ain't about what I've got
Or what I get
It's not that I'm tight with dough
But time is all I wanna spend
And you ain't gotta tell me
That you ain't a groupie
I know you ain't talking to me
'Cos of my fame or jewellery,

I used to play games
But I put the pad down
I was a boy then
I'm a man now

Friends told you I'm trouble
Yeah I bet you've heard a lot about me
There's a lot about me that you might've heard
So are you gonna listen or just take me as you find me
Am I gonna get the chance that I deserve
'Cos I deserve it
And I promise it's worth it
I'll work you out
(Yeah, I'll work you out) yeah, I'll work you out

They told me you were trouble
But I never knew I'd feel like this
We're caught up in a struggle
Can't let you go
I can't let go of trouble
No, I never thought I'd feel like this
Isn't it ironic, you got me in your pocket
We down with a little kiss

Yeah I deserve it
I promise it's worth it
I'll work you out
Yeah, I'll work you out
Yeah I deserve it
You know it's worth it
I'll work you out
We can work it out

They told me you were trouble
But I never knew I'd feel like this
We're caught up in a struggle
Can't let you go
I can't let go of trouble
No, I never thought I'd feel like this
Isn't it ironic, you got me in your pocket
We down with a little kiss
