

Destroyer

Project 86

Ready yourself for the end
Ready yourself 'cause you cannot pretend
Ready yourself for the late, for the great
The Destroyer's surrounded and cannot defend

The lives that you thought that were yours to devour
Destroyer, the tables have turned in this hour
The plagues you unleashed, every vice that you fed
Shall be visited here tenfold on your head

Let go
'Cause you know
In the end all you were was a pawn in the show

Witness the fear of the fiends
Open the floodgates, behold and believe
Witness the pain, let it rain on the beast
For the serpent is slain in a blaze of defeat
