

Hollow Again

Project 86

Somehow I lost my way
And now it's clear to me
All that I fought so hard to keep
Is all I had to leave

I know you can't hear me
And you won't believe me
But there is something I must say here
Before I fade away

(This is the world ends...again)

Forever we will be...
Forever we will be hollow
Hollow again

So I'm left here waiting
So long I'm contemplating
And now I know how it is
But now it's far too late

How will we open the eyes of the dead
When we are hollow
Hollow...

And all along here I was told
By fallen men in their charade
That we could find a hope inside
The safety of this empty place
