Enter emergency
You were once an ally to me...
Now your cold war sinks with mutiny

Undermine, secure your rise
I can see the plans in your eyes
You want the helm
For a mission of suicide

So far, you've been able to Have your way without a fight Oh, it's long been overdue You will not survive the night

A counter-move with attitude
This time we'll sail without you

You're not going to stop us tonight

No one's gonna take us alive Your bed is watery Sleep tight in what you've made

Merciless and conceals
Now I'm forced to put you to rest

One dies, One survives

So sad, once a trusted man
Now you've gone and forced my hand
So it's a watery grave, my friend
Your kind won't survive
