

The Spectacle of Fearsome Acts

Project 86

Take hold your fate in your hands Your payment, in time, will demand With fruit that's forbidden, we eat then we die and we can't survive

When evil rears its head it's life and death Like David sowed his seed and his family bled...

You tried to tempt your fate turns out it's your mistake you took what wasn't yours to take now didn't you?
didn't you?

Consequence come likes a thief
So quick that it defies belief Beware the curse it will pass to your seed with dirty deeds

You only have one chance
Don't take it light
You only have one chance
so get it right

Don't take it light
So get it right
