

The Pdm Is Coming

Project: Deadman

[Intro]

[Chorus]

The PDM is coming! We got to take our places

Now everybody's got a case can't wait to see them faces

Signal your brainwash bullshit

Your fuckin lies is bullshit

It's time to take a look

We read your fake ass like a book. (PROZAK!)

[Verse 1]

PDM, tell me what does it mean?

Terrifying shit that'll make a motherfucker scream

Original and wicked, it's self inflicted

Best believe it self destruct when we spit it

In a minute, bout to run the game and it's a shame

Bitches getting rocks y'all for speakin our name in vain

Fuck the fame, PDM's about the glory

Fuck keepin it real, and fuck your life story

You pull us, walkin towards us

You just ignore us

wishin to spit but your microphone's cordless

And hopeless, so disgusted when I wrote this

The underground is out of tune and out of focus

We're bringin it back to that level again

When motherfuckers played the part and was a rebel within

Yeah, fuck your momma takin two to the chin

Attack your ass like my name was Osama Bin

[Chorus]

The PDM is coming! We got to take our places

Now everybody's got a case can't wait to see them faces

Signal your brainwash bullshit

Your fuckin lies is bullshit

It's time to take a look

We read your fake ass like a book. (Yeah! Motherfucker!)

[Verse 2]

Fresh out of life, but the devil's takin feds

Played with Ouija boards and knives when I was a kid

Skitzophrenic so my brain is always wavin

Cross between Steven King and West Craving

Your worst nightmare, we takin it right there

Project Deadman got you runnin like a bomb scare

Mission is the murder claw or the mitten

Call it what you what, wicked rhyme spittin

Body's float in the Great Lakes

Screamin, watch the dead wake

Watch the murder victims body shake

A homicide ain't no thang to us

Eject the seat, even 'cause this shit is too dangerous

Go through your mind like a migraine

Have you screamin for your soul suicide on the night train

Crash and burn, explode, implode, reload

See you in hell as the story was told. (Goodbye.)

[Interlude]

The PDM is coming..

The PDM is coming..

The PDM is coming..

The PDM is coming..

The PDM is coming..
The PDM is coming..
[Chorus]
The PDM is coming! We got to take our places
Now everybody's got a case can't wait to see them faces
Signal your brainwash bullshit
Your fuckin lies is bullshit
It's time to take a look
We read your fake ass like a book
The PDM is coming! We got to take our places
Now everybody's got a case can't wait to see them faces
Signal your brainwash bullshit
Your fuckin lies is bullshit
It's time to take a look
We read your fake ass like a book
The PDM is coming
The PDM is coming
The PDM is coming!
Can't wait to see them faces
Signal your brainwash bullshit
Your fuckin lies is bullshit
It's time to take a look
We read your fake ass like a book
The PDM is coming
The PDM is coming
