Project Pitchfork

The first time I saw her
My heart broke apart
She's dancing like a goddess

She's so fine
I want to make her mine

Looking in her eyes
Makes me realize
I've got to know her
I've got to get her

You're taking my breath Celeste
You push me down on my knees
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste
I want to kiss your luscious lips
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste

Her voice sounds like a fallen angel
Her body's wrapped in black leather
She attracts me
She touches my soul
I want to stay
She makes me rise
Then she turns away

You're taking my breath Celeste
You push me down on my knees
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste
I want to kiss your luscious lips
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste
I'm just a figure in the game she plays every night
With every man who catches her sight

You're taking my breath Celeste
You push me down on my knees
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste
I want to kiss your luscious lips
Oh baby please give me the rest Celeste

You're taking my breath Celeste
