

Souls In Ice

Project Pitchfork

You are thinking - turn around
You are feeling - turn around
And you are here - aren't you?
You hear me - don't flee
You feel yourself
You ask yourself - what is this?
Hold this thought - don't flee
Close your eyes

Where is your center?
Where is my voice?
Does a stone move your heart?
Or a soul of your choice?

You are existing - aren't you?
You are emotion - aren't you?
You are flexible - aren't you?
You are following me - aren't you?
Physical - no
Feel yourself - locate yourself
Locate yourself - feel yourself
Close your eyes

These are my words - like souls in ice
Beside your mind - or into you
