Souls In Ice

Project Pitchfork

You are thinking - turn around You are feeling - turn around And you are here - aren't you? You hear me - don't flee You feel yourself You ask yourself - what is this? Hold this thought - don't flee Close your eyes

Where is your center?
Where is my voice?
Does a stone move your heart?
Or a soul of your choice?

You are existing - aren't you?
You are emotion - aren't you?
You are flexible - aren't you?
You are following me - aren't you?
Physical - no
Feel yourself - locate yourself
Locate yourself - feel yourself
Close your eyes

These are my words - like souls in ice Beside your mind - or into you
