

Path of Least Resistance

Prong

Need to be insistent on the path of least resistance

Now you're sitting in space
The perception hundred years from today
It's a clean existence on the path of least resistance

Never trusting my own name
Remember all that's fake
Seeking out what's vain
Destroying all disgrace
Allowing for the truth
Becoming more removed
In a world that's for the blind
Removal of the sight
Removal of the sight

Now relinquish the chains
Supplement them with healing today
Need to be insistent on the path of least resistance

Never trusting my own name
Remember all that's fake
Seeking out what's vain
Destroying all disgrace
Allowing for the truth
Becoming more removed
In a world that's for the blind
Removal of the sight
Removal of the sight

Keep calling on fate
Shadows of the brain
Need to be insistent
On the path of least resistance
Keep calling on fate
Need to be insistent
On the path of least resistance

Keep calling on fate

Need to be insistent on the path of least resistance
Need to be insistent

Now you're sitting in space
The perception hundred years from today
It's a lean existence on the path of least resistance
Now relinquish the chains
Supplement them with healing today
Need to be insistent
On the path of least of resistance
Keep calling on fate (I keep calling on fate)
A condition you only create
Need to be insistent
On the path of least resistance
You keep calling on fate (I keep calling on fate)
Need to be with the shadows of the brain
It's a clean existence

On the path of least resistance
