Living a lie
It's an illusion anyway
Up in the sky
You must throw it all away

Living a lie
An illusion anyway
Up in the sky
You must throw it all away
So contrived
See the falseness of the world
Just to get by
Lose the truth of the real world

Everything leaves me
Nothing can hide
Nothing that I need
Is left of my mind
Everything leaves me
Nothing that I need
Nothing I can hide
