Albright Monument, Baghdad

Propagandhi

Wadia's best friend's youngest sister was denied a proper buria 1 because for two days they couldn't douse the flames the allie d planes had showered on her tiny body. And all the paper trail s that lead to all the roads that lead to all these Basras make it seem like we're all just "collateral damage" waiting to be happened in some unforeseen Pentagon budget-drill. Today's Ba'a th regime is just the Red Scare of yesteryear. And I drink myse lf to sleep because I'm losing faith that any of us will ever a mount to anything more than reluctant human subsidies, the movi ng parts in a death-machine, protesting their complicity, but w aiting for somebody else to throw their body on the churning ge ars. I drink myself to sleep because I'm losing faith that we, here in the Cradle of Affluence can cease this sickening drive for individual strength through state-powers' swinging fists or that we'll ever look back and laugh at the irony that is: an a tomic murderer is enshrined in Independence, USA while 8000 mil es from here (back in the Cradle of Democracy) it's another ban ner year for a cottage industry â?? a ritual at the corner of G eorge and Constantine - as foundries scramble to recast his dec apitated monument.
