

All Will Have to Change

Protože

I say we all will have to change
In each his own way
Only Jah can judge a man
And so i gotta do my own thang

I said I'm at the Reins Steering it like how i said it woulda been Cant overstand say the ones who shoulda friends dem woulda pretend you and dem no good again Wadada Deng but that no matter on ya Evil a scatter when me satta massagana Nah follow back a none a dem who woulda want you take it to the top but if you drop dem woulda scorn you but sure as the leaves shall fall from trees I assure babylon shall fall to knees overstand everyone you can't go please so from you blessed don't be stressed go your own way

In each his own way
Only Jah can judge a man
And so i gotta do my own thang

You shoulda seen me in my room Mic stand it was a broom Nine years old with a vision and a tool now the camera dem a zoom with the flash that coulda blind Darkness it brings flash back inna me mind Now I'm back upon the grind something like you've never seen Fresh up out the cage now i switching up the team tidy up the house spic and span it till it clean life lessons learned let me tell you what i mean Let no amount of money come between we that was said evidently they never feel me So when they show you who they are better believe it And saw my friends start drifting away

I keep hear a revolution time but me want fi hear some evolution of mind tired fi hear bout all the doctrine Cause no matter what them say me say the clock still spin and though we all try to hold on even though letting go wouldn't be so wrong then you will find out life goes on facing all that you doubt is what makes you strong
