

Shadow of Death

Prozak

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

I never asked for it
Chosen to be the chosen one to gather souls of those chosen to become post-mortem
To live or damn eternal fates of the wrong
Either embrace by heaven's fate, so enslaved by Satan's throne
I've gone by many names, pronounced with screams of pain
I've walked through valleys of dark and embarked through hells flames
Such a shame that in the end I am all you have left
Now draw your last breath, hello, my name is death

The only thing that's certain
I guarantee to each and every person
Here through the curtains and I'll be there lurkin
A predator with man, I'm forced to enforce the course of nature provided by umen bits and plants
These hands are so callous from years of such malice
Sir fear is thaw power, sever but must balance
It here to my talent, some here you must vanish
Time for one's loved one to drink from thaw chalice

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

It never seizes to amaze me
Witness them screaming and carry on when I come for their babies
Or mothers, fathers, brothers, daughters
Husbands, wives, uncles, slaughter
I just do what I'm supposed to

But yet you feel the need to bleed when you see my shadow's amongst you
You pray for forgiveness, perhaps a second chance
I do not speak your language, why must you even ask
Your body fills with a ravisance
Your eyes opened, why do people dilate with self-analysis
So just relax and let it go
Let the rings of fate delegate responsibility of your souls
And it's over now, your soul has reached its destination
And it's funny how you're at the gates of hell but yet your body's underground
And deafening silence always seems to be the only sound
As you're descending down

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

Half angel, half devil
Half man, half beast
Half wolf, half ape
Half war, half peace

You'd better pray to God and hope that He will walk beside you
Cause in your darkest hour the reaper is sure to find you

Ye though I walk through the valley of a shadow of death, thou shalt fear no evil, for Thou art with me, Thy rod and Thy staff - shalt comfort me
