

Lonely One

Psyche

There's a place where lover's go
To try to see through all illusion
To share our thoughts like we wanted to
I try to hold on to all I need
For you
For you

You don't have to be the lonely one
No, you don't have to be the lonely one

And I can see when I look in your eyes
That sometimes you've been so afraid
If I can say there'll be no more lies
Is there a chance that you might stay
That you might stay?
