Sanctuary

Psyche

The night is unfolding
And I feel you breathing next to me
A face in the darkness
As I dance in the temple of the living dead
You started a fire
And the blood is rising in my veins

You started a fire
Isolation
Can you hear the sound of my desperate cry?

You were my sanctuary
The price I paid for a lonely heart
You were my sanctuary
The night is gonna tear us apart

The face on the street
Closing my eyes
A gentle touch
A desperate hand
Remove the blade from my soul
Steal this kiss before it's gone away

You started a fire
Isolation
Steal this kiss before it's gone away
