

Down In Flames

Psychopunch

Oh yeah, you're gonna do it

Oh yeah, go down in flames

Oh yeah, you're gonna lose it

Oh yeah, go down in flames

Kickin' up dust with your hand on the bible

You would do anything for survival

It's your own fault why you're in this mess

Whatever you say we couldn't care less

We're so tired of your lies

That's the way friendship dies

Looking for love you're looking for affection

Draw your own map but missed the direction

Talk about things but nobody cares

All you create is a lot of tears

Stop and think "what the hell are you doing?"

Living your life on the road to ruin

No one will remember your name

Doesn't really matter, it's all the same

All this and more we can't believe a word you say

It's all the same to us cause you will have to pay

Going down in flames
