

Goodbye Suckerville

Psychopunch

Look for the exit, can't take it no more
I'm shit out of luck and I wanna go home
Hell on my left side, a bitch on my right
I freeze in the middle, it's weird alright
It's a very strange town
They wanna show me around
Come on and feel the pain
I'm back in the devil's lane

The sheriff is fat and the preacher is thin
Gotta break out before they suck me in
I run to the station, look for the train
The track is empty, did I lose again?

Don't wanna hang around here
I start shaking with fear
They wanna fill me with lead
Now here is what they said:

We're glad to have you here in Suckerville
Where the girls are dressed as truckers
And the boys are down to kill
Give me all the liquoir I can drink
Cause the boys are turning faggots
When the girls go down to kill

Yeah, yeah, yeah what a mess I'm in
Shit out of luck and no chance to win
This game of evil here in suckerville

Goodbye now Suckerville

I can't move too fast right now

And I'm born to thrill

Alright, what an ugly night

Look out little honey it fucking kills

Goodbye Suckerville
