Greatest Waste Of Time

Psychopunch

Born stiff with a deathwish on your mind Born to be a man but a pussy inside Slam your iron fist against the wall Go tell the world you gonna fuck it all

Destination nowhere looks alright With an empty head you look so damn surprised Fly your middle finger on judgement day Your mind is made up there is no other way

Canrt you see - I donrt believe I canrt believe that people are for real

It's so easy - walk on by and never learn It's so easy - never mind just crash and burn

Passion is for faggots and we all know We gonna kick some ass at the topless rodeo Just close your eyes and please don't say a word Pissing out the poison I guess it hurts

But hey is there something you wanna say Before the good Lord takes you away Salvation don't mean much and the firstborn is out of touch And the time is ticking in For all the people who lives in sin They all reach out for the sky The even pray before they die And I watch them walk on by And it's the greatest waste of time It's the greatest waste of time It's gonna be a tough sucker for this poor old heart of mine
